MIFA REGULATIONS

1 • DATES AND OPENING HOURS

The 17th Mifa will take place in Annecy from 13 to 15 June from 9.30 am to 7 pm.

2 • PARTICIPANT'S UNDERTAKING

The undertaking to participate in the event is final and binding. The fee due upon signature of the attendance contract must be paid in full in the manner specified.

Failure in particular to settle the outstanding balance before the required date will automatically terminate the present agreement. However the signatory will still remain liable to pay the organizers the aforementioned balance.

Similarly, in the case of withdrawal, the signatory will still remain liable to pay the full cost of participation and all other related expenses.

3 • STANDS AND OTHER AREAS

Stands and other areas are to be set up on 11 June from 9 am onwards and taken down on 15 June from 5 pm. It is strictly forbidden to dismantle your stand before this time.

It is impossible to check on people entering the building at installation and dismantling times. Consequently, exhibitors must look after their equipment during these periods and opening hours. All admittance is strictly prohibited when the exhibition hall is closed to the public. The premises will be guarded during these times.

For aesthetic reasons participants undertake to set up their areas ready for the opening of the Mifa and avoid stocking boxes on their stands.

4 • OCCUPATION

Stands that have not been occupied the day before the event may be allocated to another participant without any claim from the signatory of the attendance contract to a refund of attendance fee or any compensation whatsoever.

5 • INSURANCE

Companies taking part are required to insure any equipment, furniture and goods they are exhibiting and take out personal liability insurance for the whole length of the event, including installation and dismantling. The organizers accept no responsibility for damage, loss, theft or disappearance of equipment belonging to companies. In case of damage the organizers' insurance policy will automatically hold the exhibitor (at fault) responsible.

Exhibitors undertake to renounce all possibilities of recourse against the organizers or other exhibitors. Exhibitors are required to inform their insurance company of the preceding arrangements and provide the organizers with a photocopy of a document stating that an insurance policy has been taken out for the event. The organizers will be taking out insurance cover against fire and water damage to the exhibition hall for the entire duration of the event.

6 • TRANSPORT

Both way transport costs for equipment and goods as well as all related costs such as import and export duties at customs must be borne by the attending companies.

Material belonging to foreign-based companies is subject to "temporary admission" regulations. These companies must get in touch, themselves or via their forwarding agent, with an authorized customs agent for all formalities concerning clearance and return.

7 • SAFETY

The participant is required to acquaint himself and comply with safety regulations laid down by the state authorities, the Impérial Palace Congress Centre management or, wherever the case, the organizers. For this reason, the latter will enclose all documents related to this subject in technical dossier to be sent to the participant.

The participant will refer to these documents and conform strictly to them, particularly in the case of material used to decorate stands. Similarly, the participant is required to respect scrupulously all internal measures of order and police measures relating to the event prescribed not only by the organizers but also by any competent authority.

8 • ADVERTISING

It is prohibited to use any form of advertising other than the one using supports made available to participants by the organizers. All advertising and bill sticking fees will have been paid for in advance according to applicable rates.

By way of example, the use of self-adhesive advertisements is strictly forbidden. In their capacity and responsibility as publishers of various catalogues and newspapers proper to the event, the organizers reserve the right to inspect all texts or advertisements in order to preserve the good standing and unity of the event as well as more generally protecting the interests of participants as a whole.

9 • INFRINGEMENTS OF REGULATIONS

Any infringement of the present regulations may entail immediate exclusion of the participant (temporary or definitive) even without formal notification, should the organizers desire it. In this case, the participant has no claim to refund of participation fee or whatever sum of money paid by him which remains the property of the organizers.

This exclusion is particularly applicable in cases of non-respect of accreditation rules, failure to occupy stands, lack of insurance and non-compliance with safety regulations, rules of order and police regulations. It is also subject to any action for damages or guarantee that the organizers may bring against the contravening participant.

10 • DATA PROTECTION

In keeping with the French law on Data Protection (6 January 1978) you may exercise your right of access, rectification or opposition to personal information contained in our files by contacting the Management of the two events in question, namely the Festival and Mifa.

11 • CHOICE OF JURISDICTION

The signatory company accepts without reservation the terms of the present regulations.

In case of any dispute, only the court of the town where the organizers' main offices are situated (Annecy county court) are competent. The French text alone has authoritative legal value.
