

Press Release, Berlin 24 June 2009

Save the Date! PRIX EUROPA 2009

From 17 - 24 October 2009 the most important European media competition for Television, Radio and Emerging Media productions will be taking place in Berlin. In its 23rd edition PRIX EUROPA will again present the best programmes from Europe.

The competition is held in 3 media and 8 categories. In addition, a prize for young talents will be awarded in the category „Languages through Lenses“ for productions about multilingualism.

Until Wednesday, 1 July, European broadcasters and producers are called upon to enter their productions online on www.prix-europa.de.

On 15 September the nominations for this year's competition will be announced.

PRIX EUROPA will showcase the wide spectrum of quality programmes under the trademark “Made in Europe”, presenting current cross-border programme trends. 20 years after the peaceful revolution the networking of the media in East and West will be one of this year’s topics. 13 prizes will be awarded on 24 October. The lucky winners will receive a sum of 6,000 Euros each and the famous PRIX EUROPA Trophy.

For the fourth time, a European Radio Day will take place during PRIX EUROPA - this time focussing on multilingualism in Europe: The Radio Day of European Cultures 2009 will bring together millions of listeners on the European continent by “Languages through Microphones”.

Colleagues from the reporting press are warmly invited to take part in PRIX EUROPA 2009! Please register on www.prix-europa.de starting from 1 July.

Save the date: 17 -24 October 2009

PRIX EUROPA 2009

Europe selects its best productions: Television - Radio - Emerging Media

RBB Haus des Rundfunks
Masurenallee 8-14
14057 Berlin
Germany

Press contact:

PRIX EUROPA Press department:

Tel: +49 (0)30 – 97 993 10 911/ 913

Fax: +49 (0)30 – 97 993 10 919

www.prix-europa.de; press@prix-europa.de